

2016 ANNUAL REPORT

The Problem

Americans give $373 billion each year, but only

19% to human services and 4% internationally

a fraction of that support goes to minority & native-led charities

Community problems are not being addressed by their own members, and resources are not being directed to those efforts.

The Solution

develop minority & national leaders locally & globally

empower them to be change-makers connect them to resources & people

open up avenues for funding

We believe that fighting poverty and injustice are worth our efforts. And that community insiders, not outsiders, are the best fighters.

Who can better address a community's needs than someone who is from that community?
